GET $13 FROM FATHER'S ESTATE

Final Figures in Windup of Granice Affairs Given Out

After the court disallowed excess and duplicate fees amounting in total to $245 from the last petition filed by the widow in the Granice estate, the final accounts were settled and allowed, the creditors to get their claims dollar for dollar, and $59.90 remaining in the estate for distribution. Of this amount the widow gets $19.97 besides all she has gotten before, and the children, Mrs. Julie Sprague, Mrs. Ramona Lynch and Mrs. Celeste Murphy, get $13.31 each, their entire inheritance.

Some weeks ago the creditors were offered 70 cents on the dollar, but the children of the late editor, through their attorney, J. W. Ford, and some of the creditors through W. F. Cowan, entered strenuous objections to $150 attorney fee asked by Dr. Hays in the homestead matter and this with some other items being disallowed, there was sufficient in the estate to pay the creditors in full.

This is the end of the long contest in the Sonoma County courts over the $14,000 estate of H. H. Granice who died three months after his marriage to a San Francisco divorcee leaving no will. The property was all community property accumulated prior to the death of Mrs. Kate Granice in 1904.

T. B. Bish, a prominent almond grower of Contra Costa county has been visiting his brother, L. M. Bish at Madrone. The Bish party motored to Tiburon last Sunday via. the Black Point Cut-off.

Louis Bruzzone, one of Alameda's wealthy and progressive residents is here with his family and is registered at the Toscano Hotel.

Next Monday evening will be a gala one at the Native Daughters, when the new deputy Grand President will install the officers for the ensuing year. Miss Myrtle Hardy is new president of Sonoma's Parlor. About twenty visitors from San Rafael and other cities will be entertained in the splendid style for which Sonoma's Native Daughters are famous.

The choice of the name Camp Fremont for the new training station at Palo Alto is of particular interest here in Sonoma where General Fremont, was in command in early days. Major Snyder was the quartermaster of Fremonts battalion.

AFFAIRS TO BE PROPERLY SETTLED

Celebration Financial Report Will be Rendered Shortly

A proper financial report of the recent celebration showing receipts and disbursements is to be secured for the public by the majority of business-like members of the executive committee of the affair, who refused to be parties to the high handed action of the "hand picked" committee, which put in a bill for $16 for a banquet at which Z. T. Spencer, the chairman and two admirers wound up the affairs some two weeks ago and disposed of surplus to their entire satisfaction. Auditor R. E. Perkins, recognizing the unofficial character of the demands on the treasury, very properly held up the checks, and nine of the executive committee requested Chairman Spencer to call a regular business meeting Monday evening, July 16th, for the final and regular transaction of celebration business. Their request was ignored. The committee met however, R. E. Perkins acting as chairman and Wm. Von Hacht, secretary. It was decided to call a meeting for this Monday evening, to which all members of the executive committee will be requested in writing to be present. With a bone fide committee quorum and not a hand picked selection, business will be transacted and an accurate accounting secured for the benefit of the public and the generous contributors to the June fiesta.

SOBBE'S ARREST BIG SURPRISE

Prominent Young Man Admits Shortage in Office and is Taken Into Custody.

The arrest of Postmaster J. Milton Sobbe at Glen Ellen last Saturday was one of the biggest sensations in years for no young man has had a more enviable reputation or a larger circle of friends than this Sonoma Valley boy, appointed postmaster just fifteen months ago by President Wilson. The community was shocked and grieved when Sobbe admitted the shortage and was placed under arrest for the disappearance of $16,00. He was taken to San Francisco by the Inspector and the federal officers and imprisoned until Monday when Julius Pancrazi and Mrs. Geo. O'Donnell furnished bail in the amount of $1,500. Friends by the legion came forward to offer assistance and the shortage was made good dollar for dollar. The explanation given by the young postmaster to the authorities that his business was running behind and that he used the funds to recoup his losses, hoping to make good when he had tided himself over temporary embarrasment is not accepted. His intimates feel certain that Sobbe is shielding one of his deputies and that while financially responsible is not guilty in the remotest way of any wrong doing. He is a young man of exemplary habits and his only fault is his extreme good nature and forgiving disposition. It is said he overlooked many shady acts in the handling of parcel-post packages and valuables which went through the mail and straightened out many difficulties into which an attache of his office got himself.

Sobbe has shouldered the entire responsibility however and must face trial in August before the Federal Court in San Francisco. His parents are among the oldest and most esteemed in Glen Ellen and they have the sympathy of the entire valley over this distressing affair.

Howard Gaige of Glen Ellen has been appointed acting Postmaster.

PARENTE MAY SUE GARAGE

It is generally reported that if Louis Parente gets a conviction in the reckless driving charge against Enrico Bartoli that he will sue the garage where the latter is employed for damages. The case comes up for hearing before Judge Justi on the 27 and the following witnesses have been summoned to testify: Ella and Ehtel McCullough, Joe White, Chas. Schiaffino, John Stillings, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Ives, Loraine Banchero, Ernest Campbell, Carl and Byron Weaver and Miss Carragher.

The case grows out of a collision between Parente and Bartoli's automobiles near the Oaks some weeks ago

George Fisher, circulation manager of the San Francisco Chronicle passed through town Sunday and stopped to greet old friends. Mrs. Chase and Jim Tate were favored with a pleasant call. Fisher went to school here when a boy. He was accompanied on his trip last Sunday by his brothers Will and Charles.

TRAGIC DEATH MAY BE SUICIDE

Matt Koski Killed by Train at El Verano Last Friday Night

Whether Matt Koski, the Socialist, who met his death under the wheels of an S. P. freight train last Friday night suicided or was drunk and lay down on the track to sleep his last sleep will never be known.

He was seen about El Verano and Sonoma during the two days previous to the tragedy and is said to have been discouraged and threatened to end it all. He had separated from his wife and family and devoted himself to a litttle ranch near El Verano, and to the study of socialist literature.

Friday he is said to have been drinking heavily and must have walked out to the tracks beyond the El Verarno depot, where he was fatally injured. Coroner Phillips jury brought in a verdict of accidental death.

FAREWELL PARTY GIVEN TO MRS. FOSTER

In compliment to Mrs. Harry Foster whose leavetaking from Sonoma is greatly regretted by a large circle of friends, a delightful evening was given in her honor last Friday. The handsome home of Mrs. J. A. Shofner was the scene of the affair which was attended by fourteen close friends of the guest of honor. The favorite flowers of Mrs. Foster were used in decorative touches about the commodious rooms and the coterie of ladies who have spent so many pleasant hours together since Mrs. Foster'sresidence here, presented her with a handsome cut glass dish and piece of silver table ware. Mrs. E. H. Johannsen made the presentation remarks, most beautifully expressing the good wishes which Mrs. Foster took with her at her leavetaking and voicing the regret of all at her going. The response was genuinely sincere and in the vivacious matron's most pleasing style.

Delicious refreshments rounded out a long-to-be-remembered evening.

Mrs. Foster and her family left for San Francisco Sunday, where they will reside permanently.

Rev. Chas. C. Champlin delivered a strong and vivid address Sunday morning here. He told of his work first as a Missionary and later as pastor of the Church at Pittsburg, Cal., where he has helped in ridding the city of houses of ill repute, and in bringing wayward into the fold. His talk was most interesting and showed him to be earnest and sincere in the work he has chosen. Mr. Champlin is looking fine and was welcomed by many former friends and associates.

Mrs. McElroy is enjoying a visit in the pretty city of Alameda which is becoming the most popular beach swimming place on the coast.

WIVES GALORE IS CHARGE

Irate Rival in Business Charges Chauvet Hotel Management with Many Irregularities.

Outrivaling the historic King Solomon and the most famous of Sultans in the introduction of many wives, is one of the charges made by Mrs. Dollie Phillips of Glen Ellen against the Chauvet Hotel the management of which is attacked in a spicy complaint, filed this week by the lady who has had a verbal lease on the Mervyn Hotel, which she declares, Nichols & Bank have taken over although her lease runs until November and advertised it as under their management although she still desires to retain it. She therefore asks for $2,000 damages, alleging that the announcement has hurt her business, which has always been a family hotel and that she resents the announcement that it is to be run by the Chauvet proprietors. She charges them with violating diverse laws and declares that the irresistable Nichols has introduced five comely young ladies as his wives. There is just one Mrs. Bank she avers and she is the owner of the license of the Mervyn. Nichols was highly amused at the complaint and has retained Wm. F. Cowan to defend him in the effort to recover $2,000 damages.

Nichols says that Mrs. Phillips could not take a joke and every good looking girl whom he introduced with the facetious remark, "meet my wife" was evidently taken seriously or recalled to hurt him when his former employee decided to sue. He declares they will have the grand opening of the hotel as advertised for tonight and that his "five wives" will be on the stage.

Mrs. Phillips was conducting the Mervyn Hotel for Mrs. P. Monahan and was at one time housekeeper at the Chauvet.

A fire threatened the Clements Inn at Fetters Springs Monday evening. It was timely discovered in the rear of some outhouses and put out with the aid of a garden hose. Burned matches and other evidence leads Detective Murray to believe that it was of incendiary origin.

Miss Florence Green has returned from a fine outing in Yosemite Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Weyl were presented with a little son the fore part of the week.

Another puzzle, readers! The little social bee that buzzes around says another engagement will shortly be announced—one of our popular girls from a family of beauties and a young capitalist and business man of this valley.

Mrs. Barber has been the guest of her brother, Mr. Tiddy at Burlingame.

LINDLEY HAS FINE TRIP

Ed Lindley, the popular manager of the Sonoma Feed Store, has returned from a fine trip to Utah. Mr. Lindley's destination was the Eureka copper mines 80 miles from Salt Lake City where his uncle, Al Robinson is superintendent of a big mining property. Accompanied by his brother, PercyLindley, the extracts and perfume manufacturer of San Francisco the visitors took the Western Pacific route and passed over some very interesting country, visiting the mines and coal fields at Bingham and other places of note. Business was combined with pleasure at Eureka, where relatives entertained the Californians royally. Mr. Lindley had not been to Utah, his former home for ten years so enjoyed the trip exceedingly and arrived in Sonoma feeling splendid after his much needed vacation. Everyone is glad to see Ed back.

Where Does The Responsibly Rest For This Injustice?

—oOo—

The Granice estate matter may be called settled and is a closed chapter so far as the courts go and the Judge's decrees, but it is far from settled to the satisfaction of the fair minded men and women of this state and will ever remain a blot on the great book of justice. There is not a person cognizant of the facts in this case (wherein flesh and blood heirs were deprived of every vestige of right and receive practically nothing from their father's estate which was entirely in the hands of the courts for adjustment, no will having been left by decedent), who believes justice was done. Had there been a will in which injustice was apparent, the blame would have rested on the author of the will. In this case there was no will. Where then does the responsibility rest in this instance.

There was ample proof and an effort made to have written into the records the fact that the man whose estate was so unjustly disposed of in the process of probate, fought after his marriage, even on his death bed, to prevent the adventuress into whose clutches he fell, from getting possession of his property, yet three months after his marriage to her, dying intestate, she began to reap, through Court decisions which from start to finish favored her and were destined to work havoc with the estate.

The woman who lied in the marriage register, at the time the license was taken out, was appointed administratrix. How did she fullfiill her stewardship? Ask anyone in Sonoma Valley. How did she manage the business? How did she conduct herself? The Court was fully cognizant but claimed to be powerless to interfere, although the community property and life earnings of two people was in jeopardy and a paying business of 30 years was falling into disrepute because of the odium which attached itself to the conduct of the person recognized by the law as the custodian and sponsor of the Granice estate.

In the life insurance matter, what of the decision that gave all the money to a parasite, what was designated in the policy as a part of the estate and might at least have gone to pay honest creditors instead of being a sinecure for a designing woman who divided the swag with her lawyers? What process of law or justice or discretion could make this right—that the child who was in a letter, written three weeks prior to death, given the entire insurance money, was put in a position where she had to fight for it through an appeal if an appeal was to be taken. Would not justice been nearer served had the derelict who was awarded what plainly did not belong to her been the one who had to appeal for technical advantage in the matter Learned lawyers advised that since the judge had used his discretion, appeal would be useless. The Court held that no discretion was exercised, that the decree was mandatory. What then of such a law, that can continue on our statutes, and why not with such injustices binding, a slot machine for justice instead of the selection of men of honor to sit in high places?

Coming to the homestead matter, why was the homestead right in this instance, vested for seven years, thus making the $3,500 property practically valueless as an asset to the estate and why was the word homestead, made a travesty through the connivance and juggling and bargaining which went on in connection with the mercenery end of it, until it brought but $1,700, less than $400 of which in actual money went into the estate. What of the disposition of other property in the estate which because of the unbusinesslike stewardship, became a prey of selfish bargainers? There was very little of moral force or business principle in the protection of administration given the children of the deceased in the stewardship of their father's property. Its fate was evident and a warning voiced, but to no avail.

What of the allowance of the account, a gross insult in its recitation of items, none of which were stricken out but the repairs to the automobile, wrecked and stripped as was its former owner, while under the guidance of this adventuress, now dignified as administratrix,—the automobile items and the treats and drinks, consumed in the flagrant transaction of "business". Here the court admitted discretion. How did he meet the situation? Out of 110 items objected to by the children, mulcted by fate and law out of their natural inheritance, a miserable few were disallowed. A pretty record! but peroxide blondes must have receipted bills for sealskin coats regardless of whether their victims have paid the price with their lives, the ruination of their business, the deprivation of their children. The Jewish furrier of the vampire took precedent, is the record of a case which legally and legitimately disposed of the life earnings of the unhappy victim of a notorious woman and virtually said to her, "here take this, you've still got some toll coming." Do precedents like these make enviable records?

This arraignment does not go so far as to fix responsibility, prefering to leave it to public opinion—that greatest of juries. Let it be said to the credit of the jury system, that had injustice been done through a will and these very facts brought out before a jury, the children would have received some consideration and a designing woman could not have made good her threats to deprive them of everything.

A man dying, possessed of property appraised at $14,000, his children getting $13 each at the final accounting and the creditors barely able to collect their just claims. When such a case is wound up and wives and husbands, mother and father realize it, what sort of an impression is it bound to create? Do you think that such things can be clothed in the name of justice, and the name of justice not suffer? It is something that should deeply stir the conscience of the people of this state wherein such iniquity can be possible. It is something that should grip with fear the parent who has no will and trusts to the justice to be dispensed by our probate courts. It is something that warrants the young student of law, who has dreamed of the bench, to turn with righteous disgust from a career wherein the highest honors bring the penalty of becoming an automaton if we are to accept the only explanation ever vouchsafed in this case. No, the Granice case is technically closed, but the all searching eye of public opinion is focused on the whole affair in its chronological order.

Let us hope since such an unfortunate sequence of events are shown to be possible, that the day is not far off when within the jurisdiction of California's courts, a man's children will be assured of protection and the unworthy cannot make use of our statutes to further their shameful ends.

ANNUAL EVENT TO BE CELEBRATED

Cooperation In September School Fair Asked

Did you know that Sonoma has the distinction of being the real pioneer in the matter of conducting School Childrens Fairs in the state of California? Did you know that the annual School Childrens Fair is a very well known event throughout the entire state? And did you know that the success of the fourth annual Sonoma Valley Fair which is to be held on September 28 and 29 will depend largely upon YOUR hearty cooperation?

The directors of the Fair wish to call special attention at this time to the matter of the agricultural exhibits as they are very anxious to have the very largest possible display and exhibits of all agricultural products produced in Sonoma Valley. If exhibits are planned at this time, much time and confusion will be saved later on. If everyone would try and plan their exhibits at this time and turn in a report of same to the secretary of the Fair, ample time would be given to make proper arrangments and accomodations for all exhibits, thus making for a more successful Fair. So plan your exhibits of grain, hay, fruits, vegetables, livestock, pets poultry, cooking, sewing, etc.

The various committees which are to have charge of the fair have already been appointed so that plans are already well under way. All members of the different agricultural clubs of the valley are already planning their exhibits.

Through the knowledge gained from the experiences of previous Fairs and through the cooperation of the Sonoma Valley Driving Club, the Fourth Annual Sonoma Valley Fair promises to be the largest and best event of its kind ever held in Sonoma Valley. The Cooperation of the Driving Club will do much to make this event more populalr than ever. There will be races each day, athletics, contests of various kinds, lectures, music, etc. However, fuller announcements regarding these events will be made at a later date.

By writing to the Secretary of the Sonoma Valley Fair, at Sonoma, any information or questions regarding the Fair will be gladly answered. Any suggestions which might be of value in making this event more popular will be greatly appreciated.

The Boys Agricultural Club of the High School is hard at work and promise to have their fourth annual exhibit outclass all previous efforts.

ROBERT HILL AND "THE HEATHEN CHINEE" CASE

Robert Potter Hill of Eldridge who was among those examined as prospective jurors in the chinese tong war murder case at Santa Rosa Wednesday was taxed with having employed Mr. Ware as counsel in some business matters which might predjudice him in the prosecution's favor, Mr. Ware being assistant district attorney. Mr. Hill laughed at attorney Cowan's inference and created much merriment by trying to explain just what legal service Mr. Ware had performed for him. Of the incident at the hearing the Republican said: "An amusing incident took place in the course of the examination of Mr. Hill. When closely pressed for a statement as to the exact amount of work which the assistant district attorney had done for him in a legal way he said. "I don't think of anything of particular, and I'm sure what he might have done didn't amount to much." A big laugh went up at Mr. Ware's expense. He enjoyed the joke as much as anyone else. Mr. Hill later explained that he did not mean to reflect in any way on Mr. Ware's ability.

The jury as finally selected is as follows: Harry L. Hall, Frank Castagna, Henry J. Dado, August E. Formschlag, David E. DuVander, Albert B. Cartwright, M. A. Hawkins, C. O. Ketcham, Frank L. Marlatt, A. E. Finnel, Harvey Brittain and Henry Dahlmann.

PEARS TO BE PROTECTED

Growers Organize and Will Bring About Betterment of Market Conditions

A Sonoma County Pear Growers Association was organized at Vineburg Monday. W. J. Clements was elected president, F. W. Maddocks of Graton was elected Secretary-Treasurer, R. L. Watt of Schellville, W. B. Griffith of Healdsburg and Jos Brush of Santa Rosa were chosen as Executive Committee. Representative growers from Contra Costa, Napa, and Sonoma Counties were present. President and Secretary will attend a meeting to be held in San Francisco July 18th, which will be attended by Delegates from all sections of the State where pears are grown. Object State organization of the pear growers.

Resolved, That the Sonoma County Pear Growers Association hereby calls upon all pear growers to seriously consider before signing long term contracts with canners at the ridiculously low figure now offered. With rapidly increasing costs of labor and material, such action is short sighted and means business suicide. At the end of the war the markets of the world will be opened. The pear growers and not merely the canner should share in the prosperity of the future. There was about 500 tons signed up to-day.

There will be a meeting of the Sonoma County Pear Growers Association at the office of O. E. Bremner at Santa Rosa at 2 o'clock, Saturday, July 21st, at which time matters of vital interest to the pear grower will be discussed. All pear growers are urged to attend as there will be important information bearing on the present pear situation.

The late disastrous fire in Ukiah has proved an object lesson to the people of this valley in regard to fire-fighting facilities. Mr. Shimmin and Mr. Gavin, prominent business men of Potter Valley were soliciting this past week in the interest of purchasing of an adequate chemical engine for use in the entire valley.

CLIPPED OUT

In order to comply with the new law, effective July 1, liquor ads will be clipped from papers going to "dry" territory. While we have the utmost faith in all our subscribers they shall not be tempted—such is the edict and if we were to tempt them a fine and imprisonment would be the penalty.

OLDER BUT STRONGER

To be healthy at seventy, prepare at forty, is sound advice, because in the strength of middle life we too often forget that neglected colds, or careless treatment of slight aches and pains, simply undermine strength and bring chronic weakness for later years.

To be stronger when older, keep your blood pure and rich and active with the strength-building and blood-nourishing properties of Scott's Emulsion which is a food, a tonic and a medicine to keep your blood rich, alleviate rheumatism and avoid sickness. No alcohol in Scott's.

STATE FAIR

The famous herd of Aberdeen Angus cattle from Eastern Washmay be seen at the California State Fair this year. Secretary Chas. W. Payne is in communication with the management regarding the proposition. There will be a number of high class county fairs in California this year, and as the dates have been arranged to allow time for shipments, many herds of live stock will be seen throughout the circuit if the premiums offered for the breed will justify the expense.

THE DRY CAMPAIGN

The Continuation Committee of the California Campaign Federal tion, acting under advice from the State Executive Committee, has decided that the State Convention to launch a 1918 Dry Campain shall not be held till January, 1918.

There were many consideratons which made this seem advisable. By January there will be fuller knowledge of what Congress is going to do with the liquor traffic for the period of the war. By that time an amendment to the Constitution of the United States prohibiting the liquor traffic may have been submitted by Congress to the State egislatures

Because of the world situation, the next Prohibition campaign in California must be short and snappy. The January meeting will take the enthusiasm of the Convention right into the campaign, and so give it an auspicious start. For these and other reasons, it has been decided to hold the convention in January, rather than at an earlier date. (California Liberator.)

GET LOAN

One of the first farmers in this section of Mendocino county to secure a loan from the Federal Loan Bank was F. A. Yates of Redwood valley. Bernhard of the Farmer's club has received a total of $16,000 for the farmers in this immediate vicinity Some fifteen other application have been allowed and the money is expected to arrive soon. The Federal Loan Bank was institute for the express purpose of tiding farmers over till after crops have been harvested and sold, and the government has taken this method of loaning out its money at a lower rate of interest than is usually charged by local banks. Each state in the union has a Federal Loan Bank, the one for California being located in Berkeley, and was established principally to aid the farmer. (Ukiah Times)
